

Housing Element Compliance and Key Funding Programs: Summary

December 13, 2022, updated January 30, 2023

Some state and regional funding sources are tied to having a certified Housing Element. This overview memo and attached table summarize housing element requirements and key deadlines for several funding programs. Jurisdictions should review the funding sources they plan on utilizing and ensure they will comply.

DISCLAIMER: ABAG/MTC believes this information to be correct at the time of publication, but jurisdictions should independently confirm these assumptions as deadlines and guidelines continue to evolve. This document is intended to provide general information and does not constitute legal advice. Additional facts, facts specific to a particular situation, or future developments may affect the subjects discussed in this FAQ. ## Summary: Funding Programs that Require Compliant Housing Elements

Unless otherwise noted, each program requires a certified housing element, defined as an “adopted housing element that has been found by the Department to be in substantial compliance.”

More details, including links to sources, are included in the appendix below.

Funding Program	Agency	When the Housing Element Needs to be Certified	Relevant Deadline in 2023 <sup>1</sup>
Affordable Housing &amp; Sustainable Communities (AHSC) Note language about “presumptive compliance” in the regulations: if jurisdictions are undergoing review at the time of the award, awards will be conditioned upon final certification at the time of disbursement.	Strategic Growth Council (SGC)	Time of award recommendation	April 4, 2023

<sup>1</sup> If the deadline for having housing element certification is tied to the time of the application, the due date for the application is listed. If the funding is tied to the time of award, the expected date that the money will be awarded is listed. Please double-check deadline dates as the NOFA calendar is not fixed.

Summary: Funding Programs that Reward Projects in Jurisdictions with Compliant Housing Elements

Several programs use HCD’s Prohousing Designation as a possible evaluation criterion. Prohousing Designation requires “an adopted housing element that has been duly found to be in substantial compliance with the requirements of Housing Element Law” at the time of the Prohousing application OR prior to designation.

Funding Program	Agency	Evaluation Criteria
Active Transportation Program	California Transportation Commission (CTC)	Prohousing Designation is among possible evaluation criteria at time of funding application (helps with score)
HOME Investment	HCD	Scoring factor at time of funding application – the next planned deadline is July 2023
Local Partnership Program	CTC	Prohousing Designation is among possible evaluation criteria at time of funding application
Solutions for Congested Corridors Program	CTC	Prohousing Designation application is one way to demonstrate efficient land use and housing at time of funding application
Transit and Intercity Rail Capital Program	California State Transportation Agency (CalSTA)	Prohousing Designation application is one way to demonstrate efficient land use and housing at time of funding application

Funding Programs that Do Not Require Compliant Housing Elements

- Multifamily Housing Program (MHP) – no mention of housing element compliance in HCD’s current MHP Guidelines
