Bay Area Housing Finance Authority (BAHFA)

BAHFA is California's first regional housing finance authority and was seeded with a $20M state grant to fund staff to carry out five regional pilot projects

Production

BAHFA is pursuing a $10-$20 billion bond measure to create thousands of affordable homes across the region.

Tenant Protections

BAHFA is working with jurisdictions to integrate services and resources that protect vulnerable residents.

Preservation

BAHFA is providing critical resources to help low-income residents stay safely housed.

Doorway Affordable Housing Portal

Doorway will equitably bring affordable housing opportunities to people across the region.

Technical Assistance

BAHFA is working with jurisdictions to provide research and TA on housing issues with regional implications, such as eviction prevention.

New Funding Programs

- Priority Sites Pilot ($28M) Predevelopment, acquisition and construction funds to transform surplus public land and aging malls and offices
- Housing Preservation Pilot ($15M) Capital financing for non-profits and community land trusts to acquire and renovate market rate rental housing
- Higher Impact Transformative Fund ($10M) Turner Center applied to create Bay Area Builders Lab and revolving loan fund to scale faster, less expensive manufactured housing production.

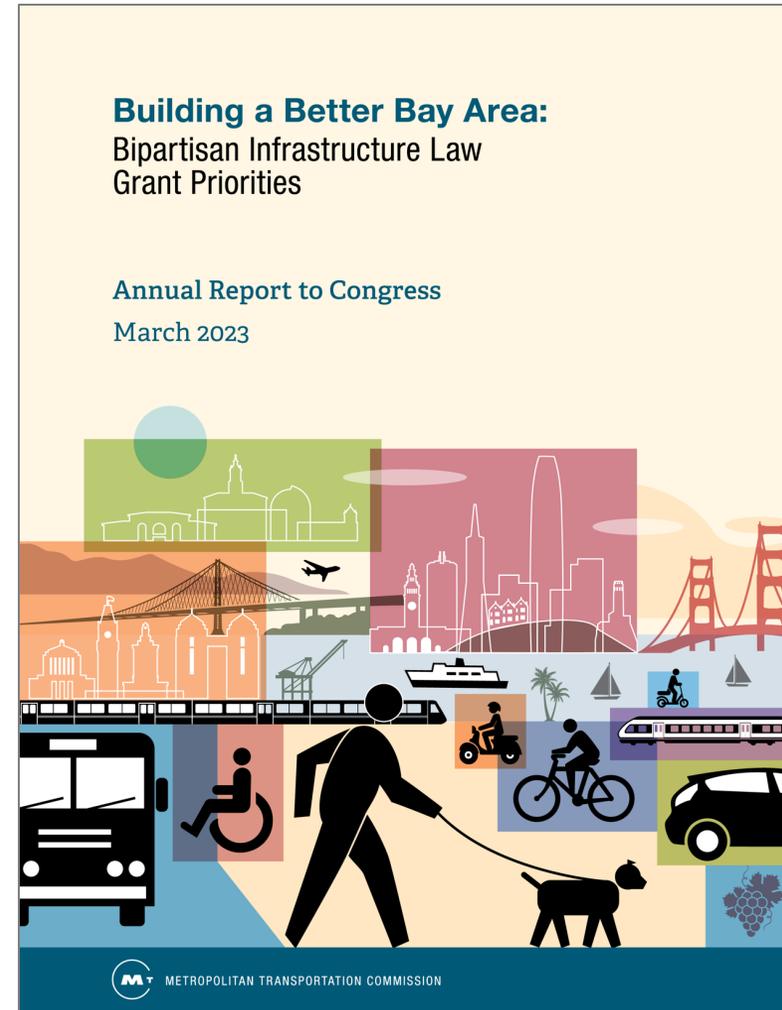

ABAG Executive Board and BAHFA Board asked staff to explore steps needed put regional housing measure on Nov 2024 ballot. Final decision comes later.

BAHFA is a Key Part of the Solution

- If we proceed with regional housing measure, BAHFA could raise $10–$20 billion to provide local jurisdictions with subsidies needed to build affordable housing and prevent homelessness
- 80% of funds raised return to county of origin
- BAHFA's 20% regional funding will advance better systems:
- Streamlined, innovative financing
  - Opportunities for regional coordination
  - Technical assistance

State and Federal Advocacy Efforts Underway
