RE: Resolution of Appreciation for Jeannie Bruins

METROPOLITAN TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

Resolution No. 4443

WHEREAS, Commissioner Jeannie Bruins is stepping down from the Metropolitan Transportation Commission after nearly four years of dedicated service representing the 15 cities and towns of Santa Clara County; and

WHEREAS, Jeannie served with diligence and effectiveness as Vice Chair of the Commission's Administration Committee, and as a member of the Programming and Allocations Committee and the Bay Area Toll Authority Oversight Committee; and

WHEREAS, Jeannie is leaving elected office after eight years on the Los Altos City Council, a period during which she served terms both as Mayor and as Mayor Pro Tem, and was re-elected to office in 2016; and

WHEREAS, in her work on the Commission, Jeannie consistently and conscientiously has represented the interests of smaller cities not only in Santa Clara County but throughout the Bay Area; and

WHEREAS, an extensive career at Hewlett Packard helped Jeannie bring to MTC a valuable private sector perspective, and an understanding of the technology industry in particular; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her business experience, Jeannie also has amassed an impressive record of public service that includes work as a member of the Los Altos Planning Commission before her election to the Los Altos City Council as well as service on the Boards of Directors of the Santa Clara Valley Transportation Authority, Silicon Valley Clean Energy, the Los Altos Neighborhood Network and the Community Services Agency of Mountain View and Los Altos; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the staff and commissioners of MTC thank Jeannie for her service to the agency and for the consistently inquisitive manner with which she worked to learn more about Commission activities, policies and programs; and extend to Jeannie and her family their best wishes for good times and good health in the years ahead.
