Victoria Fleming Sonoma County and Cities RE: Legislative Changes re: BAHFA's Enabling Statute

Dorene M. Giacopini

U.S. Department of Transportation Dear Mr. Campos and Mr. Regan,

Federal D. Glover Contra Costa County

Thank you for your letter dated May 22, 2024 regarding requested changes to the Bay Matt Maban Lavors Andonintee Area Housing Finance Authority's enabling statute as relates to potential conditions San Jose Mayor's Appointe Nate Miley BAHFA could attach to its funding programs, pending voter approval of the Bay Area's Alameda Count first regional affordable housing bond. Since passage of AB 1487 (Chiu, 2019), BAHFA Stephanie Moulton-Peters has been working hard to demonstrate the added value we can bring to addressing the Marin County and Cities Bay Area's significant housing challenges. Our organizations agree that the Bay Area Sue Noack Cities of Contra Costa County needs to massively increase the number of housing units that are available if we want to Gina Papan be a prosperous, equitable and environmentally sustainable region long-term. While I am concerned about the last-minute nature of this request, in the spirit of partnership, I am David Rabbitt directing our staff to work with you on a legislative fix this session that will address your Association of Bay Area Governments concerns, consistent with the language in the attached.

Add new paragraph, Sec. 64650(d)(6)(v):

(v) The authority may not impose any other conditions for an expenditure plan to be deemed complete to allocate funds required pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Authority may enter into an agreement with a county or city that receives an allocation of County housing revenue to ensure that the authority or county, city, or city and county take the actions necessary or incidental to implementing the purpose of this section.

Amend Sec. 64650(d)(5)(B) as follows (changes shown in blue):

(B) The regional expenditure plan shall set forth the share of revenue and estimated funding amount to be spent on each of the categories established in subdivision (b), indicate the household income levels to be served within each category of expenditures, and estimate the number of affordable housing units to be built or preserved and the number of tenants to be protected. To the extent feasible, the regional expenditure plan shall include a description of any specific project or program proposed to receive funding, including the location, amount of funding, and anticipated outcomes, as well as the estimated funding level for each of the categories listed in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b). The regional expenditure plan shall not render projects ineligible for funding based on the presence or absence of any city or county or city and county land use or housing policies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, BAHFA may use project-specific conditions to prioritize projects for funding. Beginning the second year, the authority shall include a report in the regional expenditure plan that provides its allocations and expenditures to date of projects and programs funded and the extent to which the minimum targets in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) were achieved.
